

Kim Swisher Communications, LLC

Privacy Policy

Effective Date: September 22, 2026

Kim Swisher Communications, LLC respects your privacy and is committed to protecting your information.

1. Information We Collect

When you contact us by email or phone, we may collect your name, contact information and any information you voluntarily provide. We use this information to respond to inquiries and provide our services.

Our website may also collect basic technical information necessary for website operation and security.

2. Cookies and Website Security

Our website may use cookies and third-party security tools, including Google reCAPTCHA, to protect against spam and unauthorized access.

Google's use of information is governed by its Privacy Policy.

3. Advertising

We use Google Ads to promote our services. We do not currently use Google Analytics or Google Ads website conversion tracking.

4. Information Sharing

We do not sell your personal information. Information may be processed by service providers as necessary to operate our website and provide our services, or disclosed when required by law.

5. Contact Us

If you have questions about this Privacy Policy, please contact:

Kim Swisher Communications, LLC www.kimswisher.com